

DAVID'S PHOTO ALBUM

I'm not the greatest reader in the world, but you'd never believe it by looking at this picture! Actually, the books belong to both me and my roommates, and we find it relaxing to read after a full day's work.

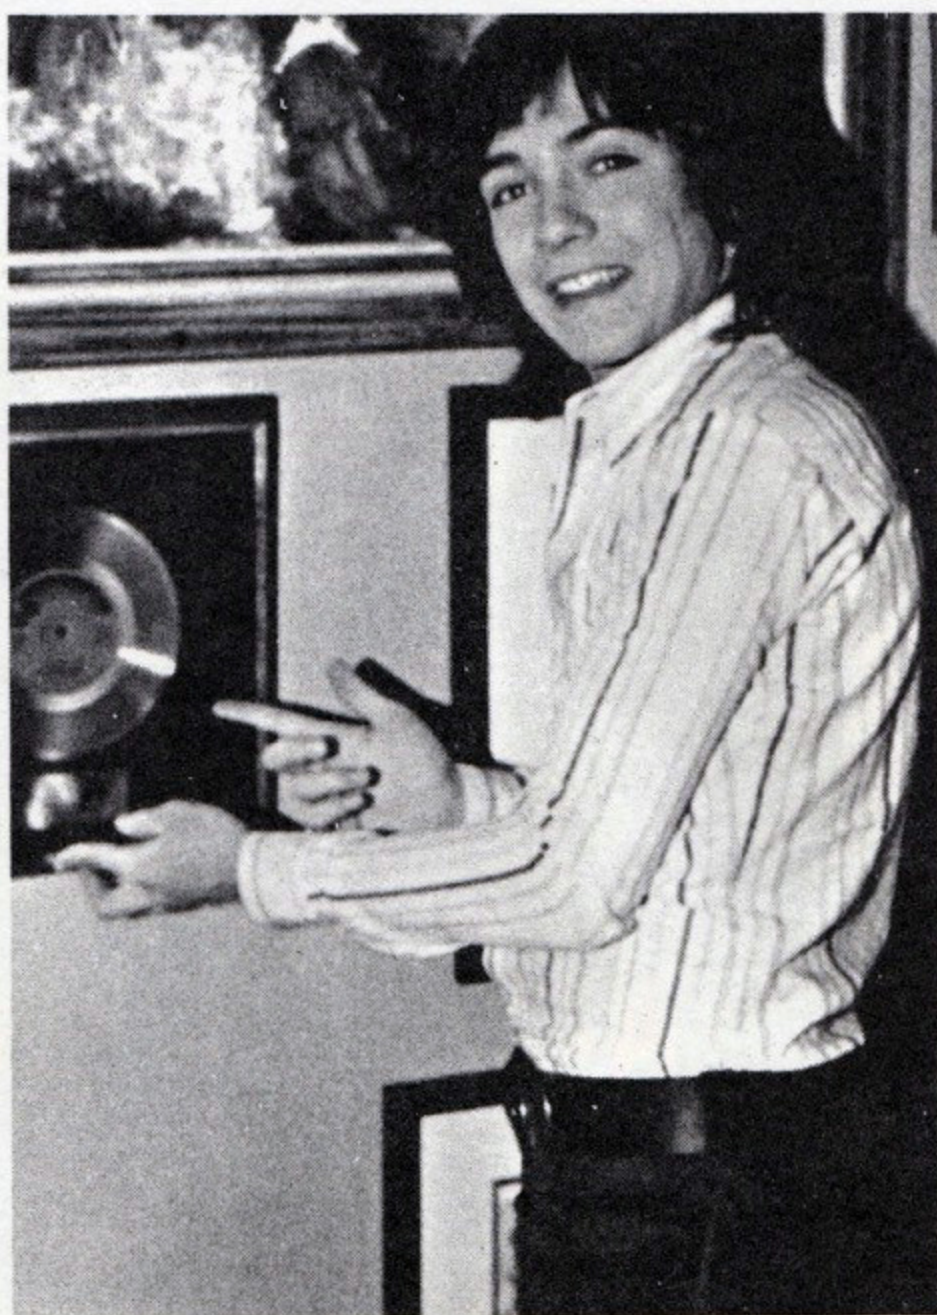

Remember when Sheesh had her first litter in the summer of 1970? I've never seen a more playful bunch of pups!

Hey, ya caught me at one of my favorite pastimes — pool!
Care to join me for a game? I'll teach you what to do!

I guess this picture needs no explanation because you're responsible for making it happen! This is my first gold record, and I owe it all
to you!

Hawaii is beautiful and that's exactly where these pictures were taken! The ocean is crystal clear and the sun shines everyday!

Birthday celebrations are always fun — especially when you're given a surprise party by the staff of TIGER BEAT and FaVE!

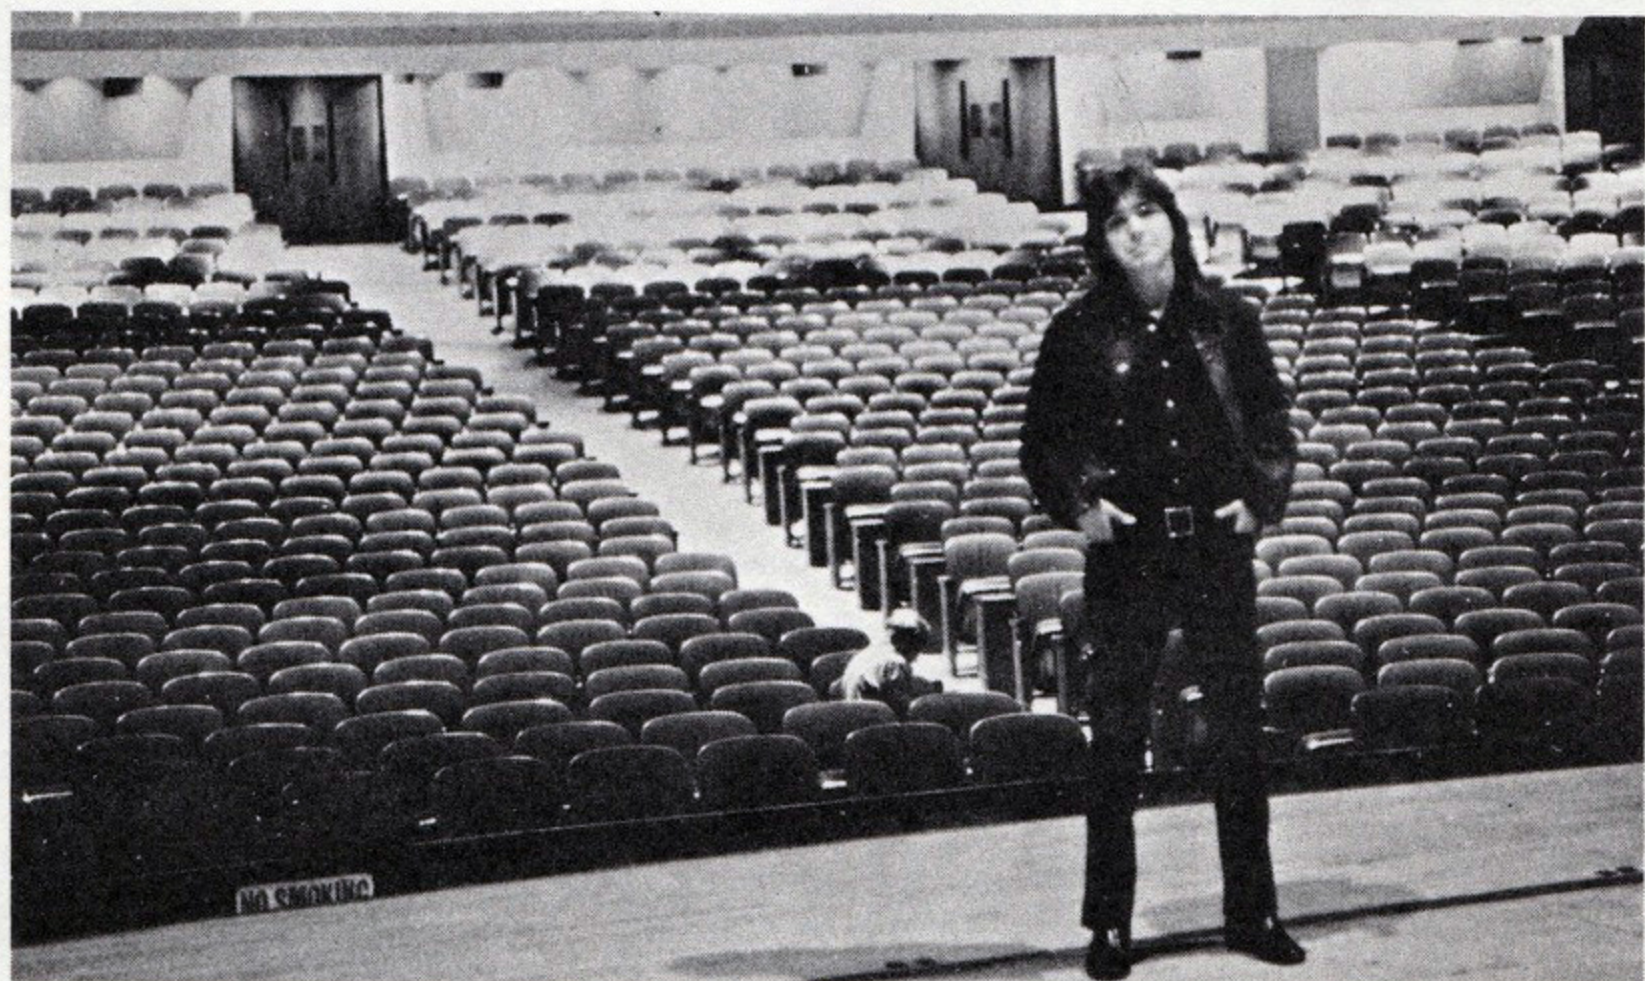

This was the gift I received from all the Laufer Co. editors — a huge picture taken at my first concert!

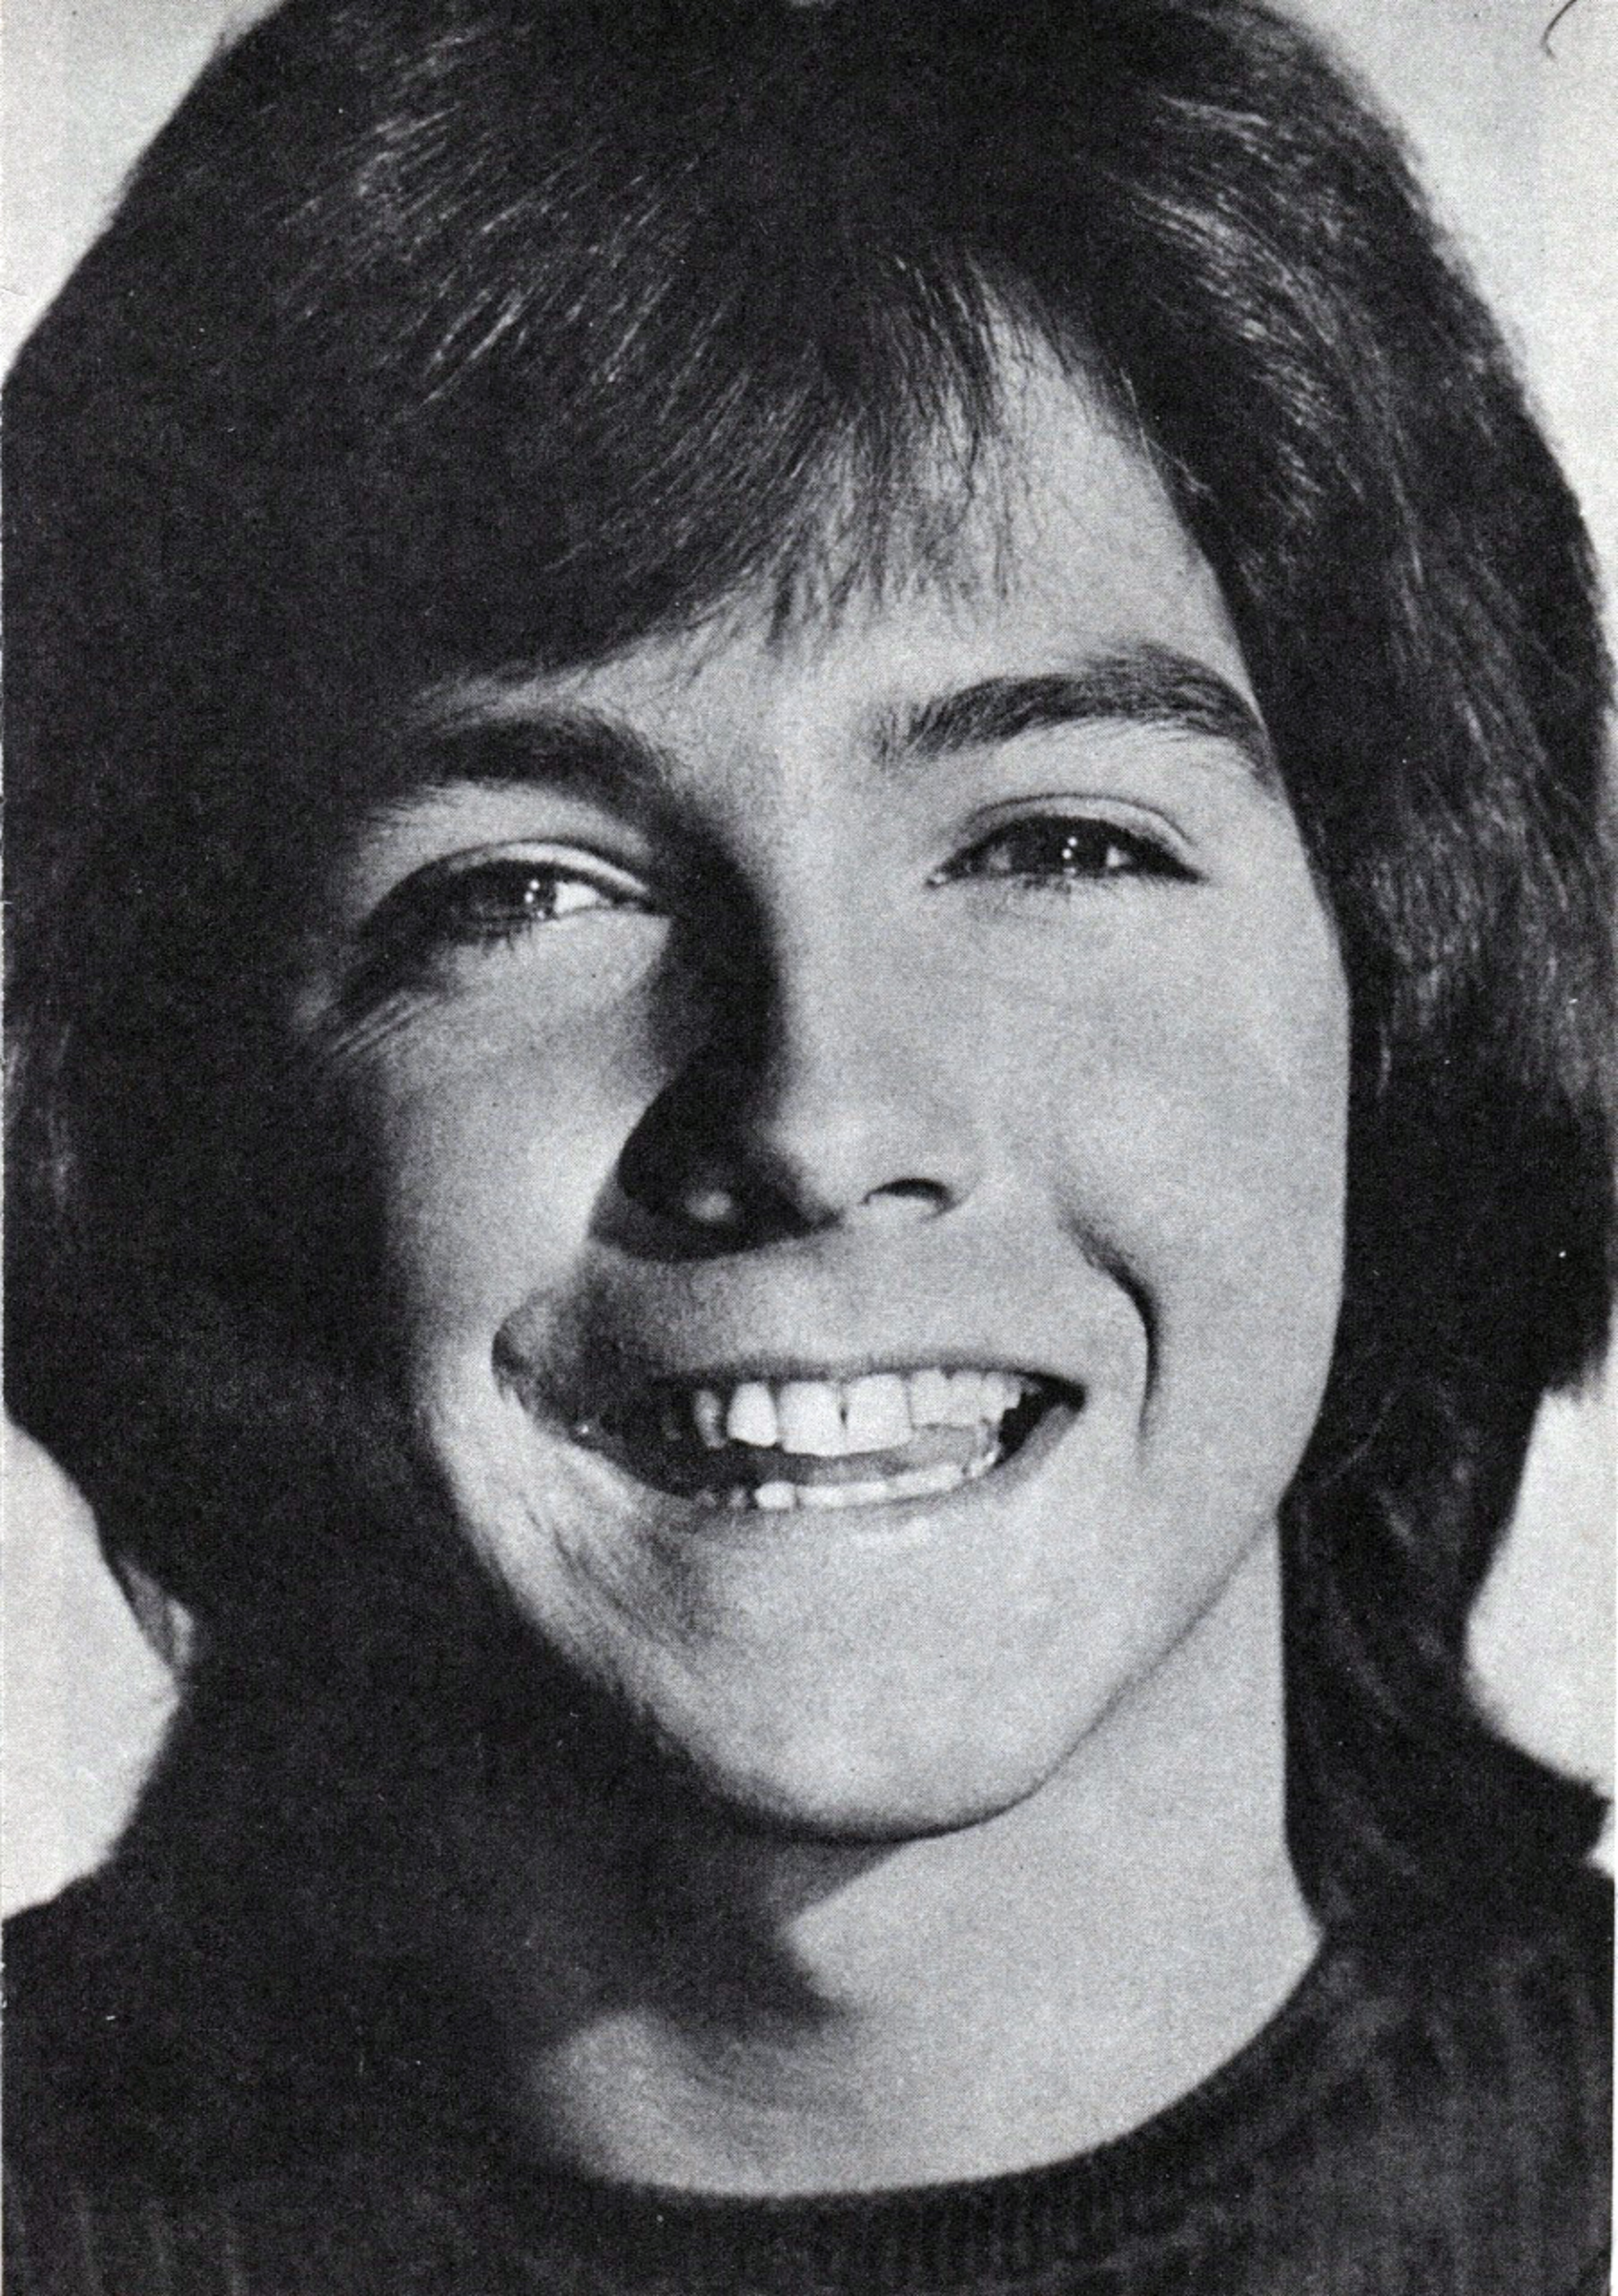

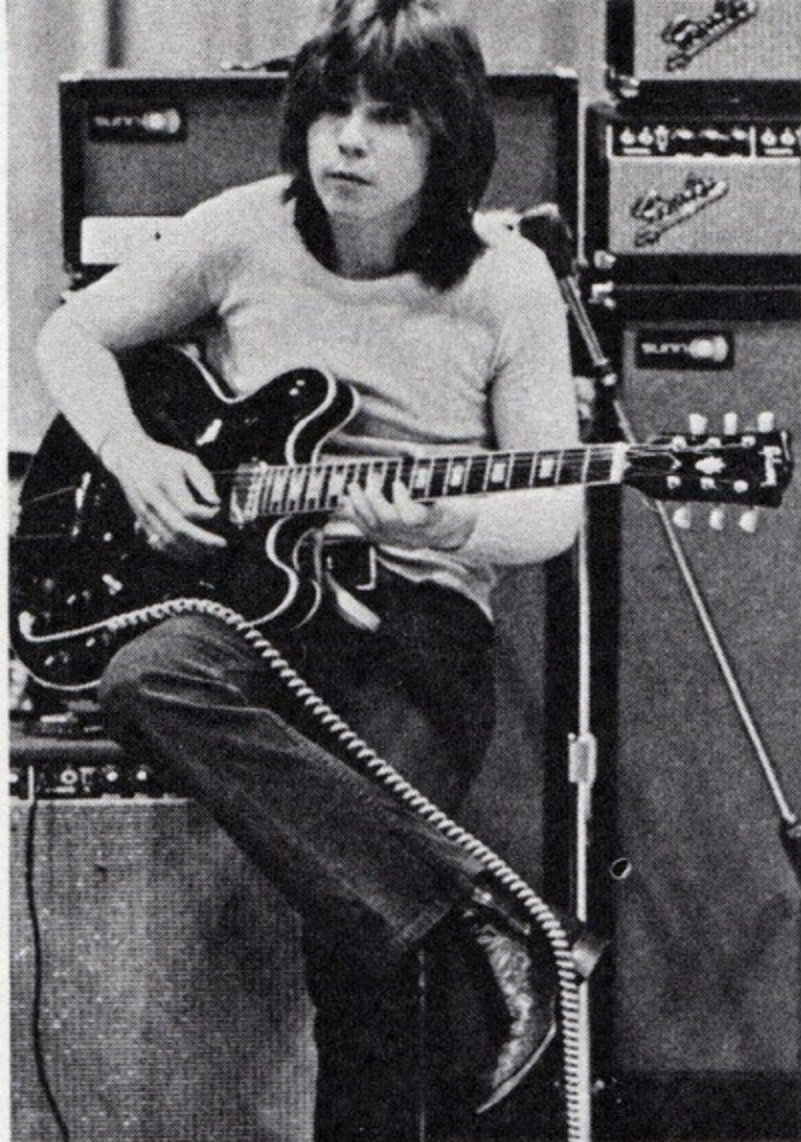

Performing is always exciting because there's so much going on!

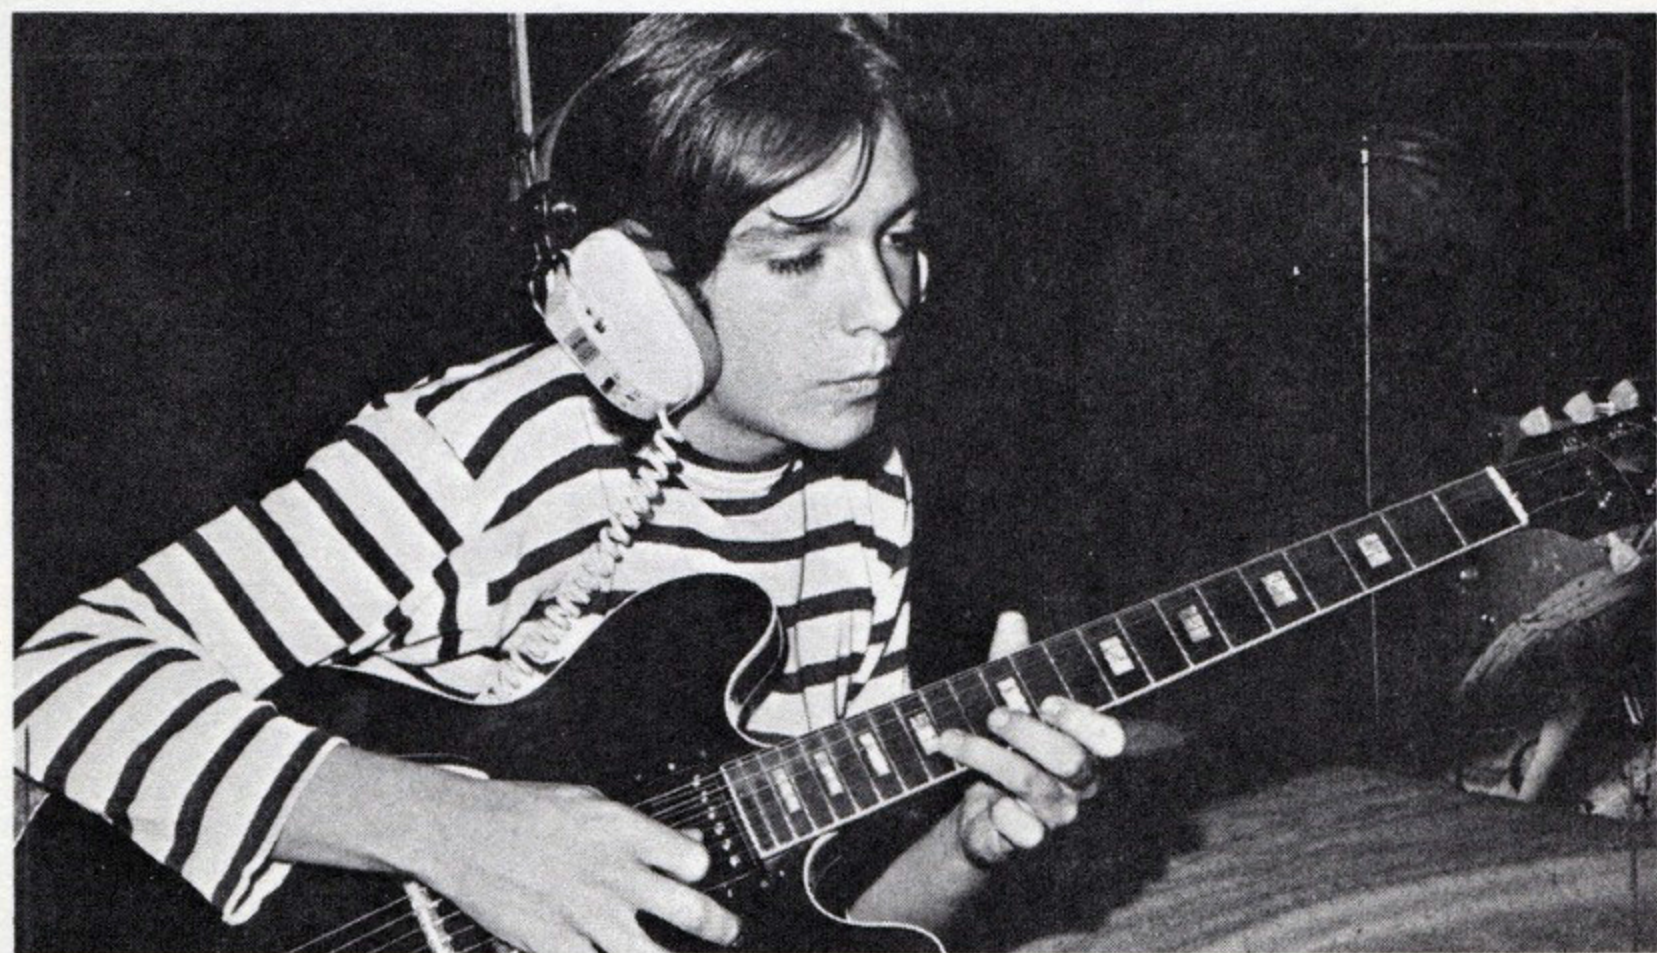

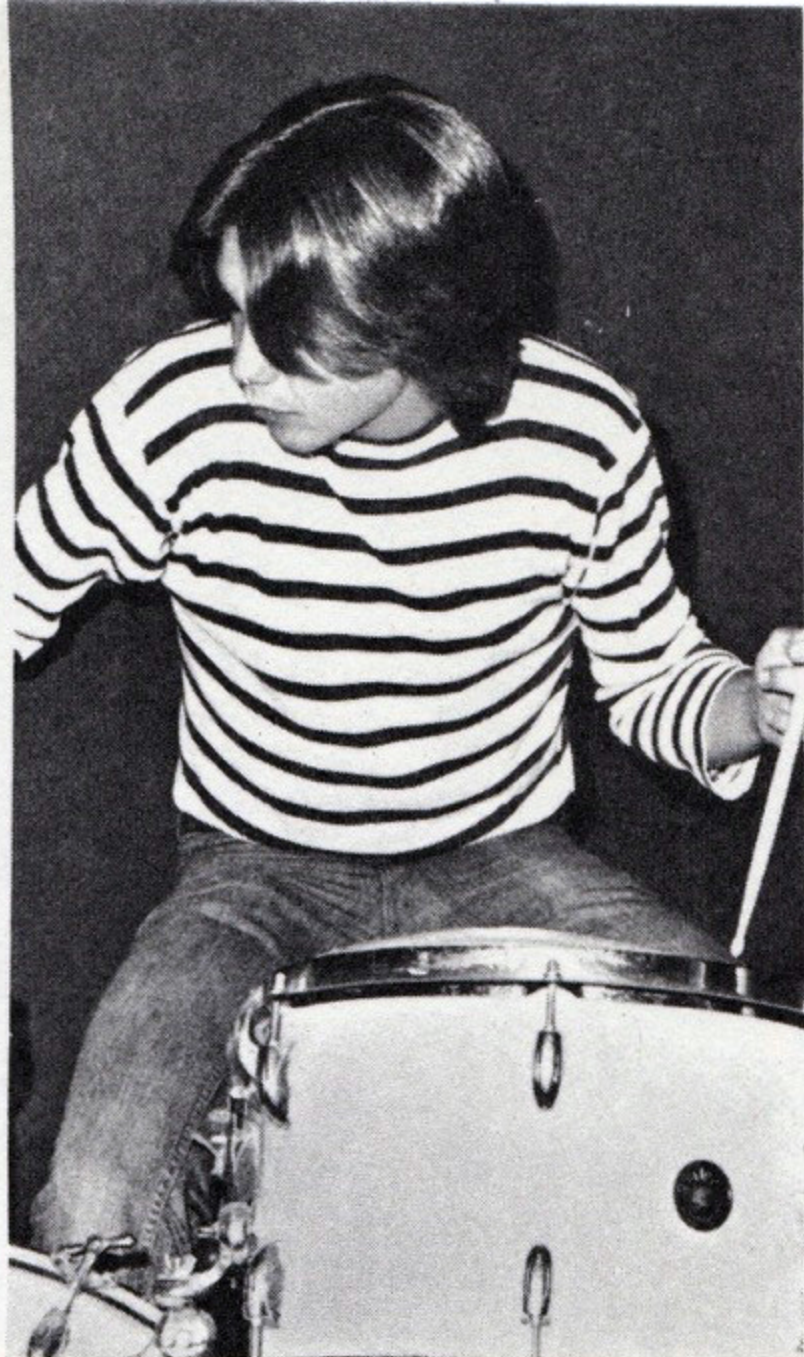

This is one of the auditoriums I appeared at just hours before show time. Good thing the people turned up... I was getting lonely!

Rehearsals take up most of my time, and the people I work with are great!

A lot of time at home is devoted to music, and I often try to find new tunes on my guitar.

This picture was taken at my first personal appearance in Riverside, California. I signed autographs and met lots of interesting people!

I always learn something when I go over numbers with Wes Farrell He's a talented song writer and arranger.

How's this for a strange hat? I found it in a Hollywood shop and decided to try it on!

I like experimenting with new sounds in the recording studio and am getting some tips from one of the engineers. He's helped produce many top groups!
