Mary Tyler Moore and husband Grant Tinker are together wherever they go.

It's very hush-hush over at NBC about JOHNNY CARSON's new contract, but insiders say it calls for more than $1½ million and that Carson will work the show only 28 weeks a year.

Wexford, the Virginia country hunting retreat that PRESIDENT and MRS. JOHN F. KENNEDY built in happy days but never lived in, has been sold. The new owners, who summered at the 46-acre estate set in the midst of grazing and pasture lands, prefer to remain anonymous. How refreshing to learn the glare of publicity is not to everyone's taste!

Wexford was offered at $350,000, but that may not have been what it fetched in a depressed real estate

David Cassidy and date Robyn Millan joined Shirley Jones and Jack Cassidy at ABC-TV party. Robyn's on daytime serial, "Where The Heart Is" on CBS.
