Hello there!

Before I get on to saying anything else, I'd like to make one thing clear here and now.

I've been getting letters from quite a few of you who have joined the Partridge Family Fan Club during the past couple of months, and have now decided that you would rather switch your membership to the David Cassidy Club.

I'm afraid this is just impossible. Once you are a registered member of an official club and have received your membership card and wallet, you can't change your mind and join something else instead!

There are two main reasons for this. Firstly, there is an awful lot of work involved keeping Fan Club records straight and this sort of thing would turn them upside down.

I am sorry to have to disappoint some of you over this, but I'm sure you will see the reason. If you can't scrape up enough to belong to both clubs (which is, of course, the ideal solution for all devoted David Cassidy fans), then the only suggestion I have to offer is that you transfer your membership from one club to the other when it comes up for renewal next time.

Mind you, September is getting nearer! And that's what I really wanted to talk to you about this time. Because Saturday 2nd September is the date fixed for a massive "BRING BACK THE PARTRIDGE FAMILY" demonstration. I hope you can make it and that we'll be seeing you then.

We'll all be gathering on Shepherd's Bush Green from about two o'clock that afternoon, ready to start marching down Wood Lane to the BBC TV Centre at 3 p.m. If you can, bring a big banner or placard with you – but the most important thing, of course, is that you bring yourself, plus any friends who feel the same way as you do. Another good idea is to bring along petitions signed by Partridge Family fans in your area, so that these can all be handed in at the Beeb to add a bit of extra force to the demo.

Kim Pollard, who reckons that David is the most wonderful thing in her life, has said she will cope with a lot of the organisation for this march, to save me having to answer a whole lot of extra letters asking for more info. That's a wonderful help... Thanks a million, Kim.

Write with ideas, or for more information, enclosing a stamped addressed envelope to: Kim Pollard,
84 Lanresse Court,
De Beauvoir Road,
London N.1.

See you on the 2nd! Now don't forget!

If you're not already a member of David's Fan Club you can join by sending a 75p Postal Order to me at the address above.
