care," David concludes. "They see me as something. For me to destroy that image would hurt them. I feel a responsibility toward them. But it's a strange feeling to walk into a hotel lobby and see twenty or thirty of them waiting. For some reason they all scream, but when I go up to talk to them, they can't think of anything to say." Perhaps that is often the case with the phone calls David receives. ●

HOLLYWOOD CHATTER

Almost did a double-take when I saw RITA HAYWORTH on Wilshire Boulevard. Her hair is short and neat now, worn close to the head, and her outfit was simple and elegant. Makes her look younger and lovelier. Checking further, I found she's working very hard these days—getting up early in the morning for singing and dancing coaching. Does that mean she'll do Applause after all—in a road company?

BETSY DRAKE, who was married to CARY GRANT before he was married to DYAN CANNON, has written a book. No, it's not about life with the famous lover, but a novel, and she may be hitting the autograph trail plugging it. The title is "Children, You Are Very Little," and it's about a precocious nine-year-old.

PETER SELLERS is on a peace flight across Europe dropping flowers and pamphlets all over the place. East Indian religious leader SWAMI VISHNU is behind it. He has been teaching Peter Yoga for the past few months.

GUESS AGAIN: What big, big male star is actually making obscene telephone calls to big, big lady stars as well as wives of film bigwigs? He'd better stop because some of the ladies are onto him and may turn him over to authorities. Doesn't he realize—his voice is famous?

Is it true that GEORGE HAMILTON romanced cute BRITT EKLUND abroad, had her thinking it was really serious, then returned home to ALANA COLLINS and left her flat? That's what they're saying in Europe—that Britt's broken-hearted!

Rumors are flying—that ELVIS PRESLEY is having talks with his long-time manager, COLONEL PARKER. The reason—Elvis wants to take to the road now that he's at the peak of his career, but the Colonel doesn't want him to. Says there's more money in films and Las Vegas. If Elvis ever wanted to free himself from Parker, it might cost a mint and take a team of lawyers to unwind the agreement. Elvis loves the road, new audiences in the hinterlands, and he doesn't care a hoot if there's not as much money—says he has plenty. The Colonel has tried to cut down on Elvis' entourage of old pals and his generosity with them.

Reports from New York are that it simply wasn't true that LAUREN BACALL was jealous of ANNE BAXTER's success in Applause. Annie reports Lauren has sent her warm, wonderful notes, praising her success. Well, Anne is sensational, and who should know better than Lauren, who was a smash herself?

Joey and Sylvia Bishop helped celebrate wedding of Dick Martin and Dolly Reed.
