Hello there!

This month's super-news item is, of course, the recent release of another Partridge Family disc over here! And, for anyone who hasn't already got "I Think I Love You", this new maxi-single is a MUST!

Talking of "I Think I Love You" – have you woken up to the fact that there's some marvellous David Cassidy notepaper on sale now? If you saw the first edition of the special David Cassidy Magazine, you'll already know all about it. (And, if you didn't get that mag – hey, you must be a case for treatment!). The paper has been specially designed with David Cassidy fans in mind – that's why it's got "I think I love you" inscribed beneath a very attractive motif. A pad of this unique paper costs 30p (plus 5p to cover postage and packing). So, send a crossed postal order for 35p, payable to the David Cassidy Magazine, and see for yourself how great it is!

Address your envelope to: David Letterheads, David Cassidy Magazine, 58 Parker Street, London WC2B 5QB.

And now it's S.O.S. time to some more Partridge Family fans, who don't seem to want the magazines they've sent for enough to make sure they tell me their full names and addresses!

I'd like 'Marina' to let me know her surname and address, too, please, so that we can start sending her copies of Superstar to her. The same goes for 'Sally' who recently sent in a postal order for 90p; 'Jean' who wanted copies of issues 1-7; and Fan Club member No. 3331 – I think your name may be Jan, but I can't really read the writing and I'm afraid I need a surname anyway if I'm going to check up your address in the Fan Club records!

Pamela Frain, Terry Gregory and Miss I. and S. Cookson all managed to get as far as telling me their full names – but then went and left out their addresses! So I'd be grateful if you could all write in again and this time make sure you tell me your full names plus your full addresses and the numbers of the postal orders you sent in.

Would Esta Aitken do this too please! I've got your Fan Club wallet all ready to send off to you, Esta, but I'm completely stuck until I hear from you telling me what address to type on the envelope!

Those seem to be all my "problem people" at the moment! Please remember you can't hope to receive the things you send off for unless you make sure that you have given your own name and FULL address – and don't forget to write it clearly – or even better – PRINT IT IN CAPITALS. You may know what town your road is in – but I don't!!!
