Welcome to FAB!

This is a message for all DAVID CASSIDY fans, so if you're not potty about David, skip this. We at FAB don't understand why the BBC is keeping us waiting . . . for the return of The Partridge Family. We've been very patient, all of us, and we now think it's time that the Beeb felt the power of FAB readers. It's pretty obvious that they don't realise that David and Co. are more popular now than they were even last December when the P.F. was taken off telly. So let's tell them once and for all how we feel.

Our plan is this: you write to Mr Gunner Rugheimer, Head of Purchased Programmes TV, BBC, c/o FAB to the address above. Then we'll collect up all the letters and take a chauffer-driven car (yes, honestly!) to the BBC and show them how much we all want David back on our screens.

WRITE NOW! Make sure we get all your letters by Monday, June 19th, and we'll act fast! It's up to everyone who loves David to see that he's put back on TV. Don't let him down!

Love,

Betty

David takes a brake!

Over in Los Angeles, DAVID will soon be starting work again at the Screen Gems studios on another series of THE PARTRIDGE FAMILY. It's mostly hard work, but even actors have to take a break sometimes — especially when the sun is shining and you've just bought a super chopper-type bike!

David normally uses the bike as a quick and easy means of getting from place to place in the vast area that is the film lot.

But this 'Brian' bike is such good fun it's a great way to relax, too. Off David goes, concentrating hard. (Sometimes the handlebars are a bit difficult to control!)

It's a really weird bike! But David assures us it's comfortable and good. On the bike he's ridden, he disappears into the sun. Who knows where he goes!
