DAVID'S HOME AGAIN

... Meanwhile, back in the States, David didn't lose any time getting back into the feel of his weekend concert schedule.

His first gig after his return from Europe was in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, on Saturday 19th February. And his American fans didn't leave him in any doubt that they sure were glad to have him back again! From Pittsburgh it was only a short hop (compared to some overnight trips David makes, that is!) to Philadelphia for a concert there the next day.

David spent the next weekend out East as well. On the Saturday he appeared in Washington DC and then went on from there to Baltimore in Maryland where he had a concert scheduled for Sunday.

More dates coming up are: 5th March at the Astrodome in Houston, Texas - a stadium which holds no less than 44,000 people. Wow! Although, with David singing there, even that sort of space just isn't enough!!

Then, on 11th March, he'll be appearing at Madison Square Garden, New York, seconded - as usual - by supporting singers Kim and Dave.

HAPPY BIRTHDAY

There are two Partridge Family Birthdays coming up this month. It's "Many Happy Returns" from all fans in Britain - and right round the world for that matter - to Suzanne Crough who will be nine on Monday 6th of March. Shirley just squeezes in at the end of the month to join her screen daughter in the Birthday stakes.

ATTENTION ALL PARTRIDGE FAMILY FANS:

The last show of the first series of programmes will be screened on Sunday 12th March at 2.30 p.m.

It also appears that there WILL be a second series on the BBC some time in the near future. So keep your ear to the ground for more definite news soon.

Meantime, cheers to the BBC who've seen the light at last!!

T. REX IN U.S.

There was one very special member of the audience at T. Rex's first U.S. gig on 15th Feb. That was Mick Jagger, who led the other 4,999 + stompers at the Palladium in Hollywood.

Since then, Rex's other appearances have just about spanned the whole of the North American continent. For those of you who like to know all the details, this was the way it went:-

Friday 18th ...Spectrum Philadelphia
Saturday 19th...University of Detroit
Sunday 20th ...Alexandria, Virginia
Thursday 24th...Auditorium, Chicago
Saturday 26th...Fenway Boston
Sunday 27th ...Carnegie Hall, New York
