Hi there!

It really is good to be talking to you again so soon. I hope you like the idea of Mickie being published every other week now. It means that we can bring you more of your favourite songs and artists more often — which can't be bad.

Wasn't it fantastic to hear and see David Cassidy when he came over to visit us in September? We were down at the BBC on the day he did the David Hamilton show and he was really knocked out to see how many of you had turned out to welcome him.

You may have heard David tell us on the show that his latest single How Can I Be Sure is in fact his own personal favourite record that he's made so far. He was really pleased when we told him that we would be printing the lyrics in this issue. It made him happy to know that there'd be lots of fans singing along with him every time the record was played. Mind you, with David's beautiful voice, it would be a shame to drown his words of love — he really must be the sexiest guy around right now!

Keep those messages rolling in, won't you! We're doing our best to print them as we receive them. But please try to let us know well in advance if you have any birthday greetings you want to send someone — it breaks our hearts if we've just missed out by a day or two. We can always print belated birthday greetings! So your message can still appear.

To get over the problem, what we'd like you to do is start sending in messages NOW for birthdays around late October and November. Then you can be sure of getting your greeting printed in time.

We've got some really super hit lyrics in this issue — apart from David's — such as Slade's smash hit Mama Weer All Crazee Now and T. Rex's Children Of The Revolution.

There's certainly a lot of singing to be done in this issue, so get your vocal chords in tune and have fun.

See you all again on October 13th

WE'VE GOT THE ACTION!

Luv,
Trish

How Can I Be Sure

Recorded by DAVID CASSIDY
on the Bell label

How can I be sure
In a world that's constantly changing
How can I be sure
Where I stand with you

Whenever I, whenever I am away from you
I wanna die, 'cause you know
I wanna stay with you

How do I know
Maybe you're trying to use me
Flying too high can confuse me
Touch me, but don't take me down

Whenever I, whenever I am away from you
My alibi is telling people
I don't care for you

Maybe I'm just hanging around
With my head up, upside down
It's a pity I can't seem to find Someone who's as pretty and lovely as you

How can I be sure
I really, really, really want to know
I really, really, really want to know

How's the weather
Whether or not we're together
Together we'll see it much better
I love you, I love you forever
You know that I can be found

How can I be sure
In a world that's constantly changing
How can I be sure
In a world that's constantly changing
How can I, how can I, how can I
How can I be sure, I really wanna know
How can I, how can I, How can I
I really wanna know, I really wanna know
How can I, how can I, how can I
How can I be sure, I really wanna know
How can I, how can I, how can I, I really wanna know

Brown Eyes

Recorded by the PARTRIDGE FAMILY
on their Sound Magazine album on the Bell label

Brown eyes, you're beautiful and you're all mine.
I want you like you want me, all the time.
Don't say that you don't want me
Don't make me run away
'Cause I need that something
You bring me every day.

Brown eyes, you're beautiful, this song's for you.
I wrote this song that I'm singing just for you.
If words could paint a picture
There'd be no words to sing
And I'd be the greatest painter
In this whole world today
And I know what I feel
And I know that it's real
And I feel it, every day.
And I'm not gonna lay no story on you, girl
If my story wasn't true
'Cause you must know by now
I wrote this song for you.

Brown eyes, you're beautiful, you're all mine.
I know you want me like I want you, all the time.
And if you're not sure I love you
And there's something on your mind
Listen to the song I'm singing,
I'll sing it one more time.

Brown eyes, you're beautiful and you're mine
Brown eyes I love you all the time
Brown eyes, you're beautiful and you're mine.
