his favorite animals

All animals love DAVID

DAVI ASSIDY

Kisses for David: Not only do millions of teenagers all over the world love David Cassidy, but all the animals that run around on his property in Hollywood love him. It's mutual: animals are David's big hobby, along with his music and skiing. When he invites his friends over, there is an unwritten rule: Be sure to bring all your pets!

On horseback: Whenever David has time (and unfortunately that's too rare!), he rides for an hour along the beach in Santa Monica at the crack of dawn. He and his Irish Setter "Bulls-eye" (right) are inseparable. His distinguishing feature: a black spot under the eye. What girl wouldn't want to be hugged so tenderly by David?
