

DAVID'S FUTURE...o.o.o

What's in store for him?

WELL, it could definitely be said that David's got the whole world in his hands! But, well, we thought we'd make absolutely sure!

According to our palmist expert, it's possible to form a very accurate picture of someone's character by studying the palm of their hand — and more — give them an indication of what life will hold for them, and inform them of their shortcomings (not that David has any!).

For a start, there are various hand types; the Practical Hand, the Intuitive Hand, the Intellectual Hand and the Sensitive Hand, and David has — you guessed it — the Sensitive Hand!

WATER BABY!

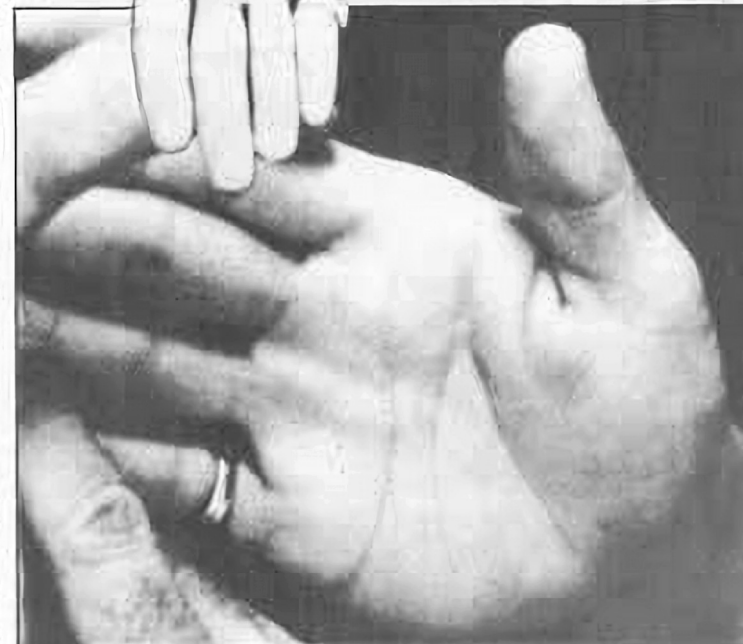

According to his type, he corresponds to the element of Water, and his character can be analysed as such. For example: Water is fluid, restless if contained, continually seeking to escape yet taking its shape from that of its container. And it's deceptive: a calm surface may hide a strong undercurrent. And in comparison, a water type such as David is passive, emotional, sensitive and often has quiet moods. He needs to feel wanted (you are, David, you are!).

DREAMY

His surface life is so much in reflection of those around him, but his deeper, subconscious life is much closer to him — for this reason, he gives people the impression that he is 'dreamy'.

He has a natural sensitivity and strong intuition and is often absorbed in his own moods and thoughts, and yet can break out totally from himself (such as when he is performing on stage).

For David, a type ruled by Water, (particularly changeable and fluid) the atmosphere in which he lives will always be of utmost importance to him. A calm and peaceful environment will be essential to his emotional balance as he is easily upset emotionally.

David is predominantly imaginative (definitely!). This imagination coupled with his great sensitivity enables him to be a sympathetic friend, instinctively feeling the need in another for protection; he will always automatically be drawn by this need for help.

David, true to his type, has a great deal of inspiration (hence his love of entertaining his fans) and he will often respond to very everyday things in life with a sudden Brilliance.

So these are the characteristics we have been able to pin-point from the shape of David's hand. Here are the line readings.

DAVID'S Life Line (the line far right on his hand in our bottom pic) is uninterrupted, clear, smooth-running and quite long — this indicates that his 'physical constitution' is excellent — he is very unlikely to experience any physical traumas throughout his life.

THE HEAD LINE (the middle line on David's hand in our bottom pic) reflects the characteristics of his mentality. The fact that it is long and prominent suggests that he will always have a great deal of perception and understanding of himself and life.

THE HEART LINE (far left in our bottom pic) is strongly connected with the Head Line, which marks a person's emotions. The Heart Line suggests the emotional drive (whether conscious or unconscious). A strong Heart Line (such as David's), running clearly towards the fingers Jupiter (index) and Saturn (middle) tells us that he is an emotionally sensual person, and that he will always enjoy a happy love life!
