

50 David Cassidy concert tickets to be won

Yes that's the fabulous opportunity we're offering you in this issue – the chance to see David sing in person, at either Wembley or Belle Vue, Manchester, when he visits Britain next month!

We've received lots of letters from you over the past few weeks saying how disappointed you were that you couldn't get tickets as most of the agent's had sold out, so we decided to run a competition which will give 26 London fans and 24 Manchester fans the chance to see David after all. Don't worry Manchester fans if you think we're being unfair in giving away more tickets for the London concerts, because in our next issue we'll have 50 more tickets to give away – this time 26 to Manchester and 24 to London. So altogether that will make 50 lucky fans from the North and 50 from the South who will be able to thrill to the occasion the moment David steps on stage.

Judging will take place on the 7th February and the names of the prizewinners will be published in the earliest possible issue of Mickie! All tickets will be received by the prizewinners not later than one week before the concerts.

I'm sorry, but we can't enter into any correspondence with you regarding your entry and the Editor's decision will be final and binding concerning the judging of the competition.

Okay, so get cracking and fill those entry forms in right away – this is an opportunity no David Cassidy fan can afford to miss.

DON'T FORGET! THERE'LL BE 50 MORE TICKETS FOR YOU TO WIN IN OUR NEXT ISSUE, WHICH WILL BE ON SALE IN TWO WEEKS' TIME. SO ORDER YOUR COPY NOW!

HOW TO ENTER

1. Look at the ten song titles listed below, which have all been recorded by David.
2. Then decide the order in which you would like David to sing them when he appears on stage at London and Manchester. For example: If you think "I Just Wanna Make You Happy" would be an ideal song for David to open his act with, then just write the letter D in the first box and so on until you have completed your list of ten letters.
3. Complete the coupon by inserting your name and address in the appropriate space (BLOCK CAPITALS ONLY!).
4. Cut out the coupon, and send it to:
DAVID CASSIDY CONCERT COMPETITION, 58 Parker Street, London, WC2 5QB as soon as possible.

All entries MUST be on our special coupon – so tell your friends to buy their own copy of Mickie if they want to enter.

The closing date for the competition is the 6th February, so make sure we receive your entry by then.
