

DAVID Comes To Germany

The Teenbeat stars are now rolling towards us in person!

After the Jackson 5, now the super sensation for all teens, David Cassidy, star of the TV series "The Partridge Family" is giving his first concerts in Germany. On March 3, the teen idol will perform as a guest star at Radio Luxembourg's Golden Lion awards ceremony in Dortmund's Westfalenhalle. Six days later, on March 9, David sings in Germany for the second time.

At 8pm he will give his concert in the Stadhalle of Offenbach near Frankfurt! This is David Cassidy's first big leap onto the European continent. He gave his first concert in London in the fall of '72, made private flying visits to Amsterdam and Frankfurt and flew back to Los Angeles. David's European stops at a glance.

3 March Dortmund.

4 – 7 March Paris (TV Show)

9 March Offenbach

10 March Luxembourg (Radio Show)

11 March Rotterdam (Concert)

March 12 – 24 England tour, on which David will also perform at London's Wembley Stadium. Of course BRAVO will report on David's big European trip in detail.
