

David Cassidy is to bring libel actions in the High Court against TV producer and journalist Tony Palmer and the Observer newspaper. He alleges "The Cassidy Charade" published in the paper criticizing his performance at a concert in the U.K. was "false and malicious." Cassidy maintains that his reputation has been gravely injured and he has been held in contempt and ridicule. . . .