

would matter most is that I'd strive to turn on the light in someone's mind.

tually spend half my time there and the other half in Hollywood.

Hide Away

Dear David, Do you ever feel you want to get away from it all — to escape to your own secret place?

Cindy, Birmingham.

Dear Cindy, I love my life as it is right now, but sometimes it does get a bit hectic — and then I do like to get away.

I've just bought 24 acres of land in Hawaii and I hope to move there in say about two years time. Maybe I'll even-

Family Split?

Darling David, I read that you and Susan Dey might be leaving the Partridge Family next year. I hope this isn't true 'cos it just wouldn't be the same without you!

Shirley, Northants.

Dear Shirley, Its definitely NOT true! Susan and I will both be with the PF right through next year. We both love doing the show and wouldn't dream of leaving it!

Sam

Dear David, I know you live with a roommate — Sam. Do you ever find this annoying?

Viv, Margate.

Dear Viv, Sometimes it is, but there are times when it's groovy to have someone else there! Besides we each have our own rooms, and when we go to them, that means we want privacy, so we don't bother each other at all.

Teaching

Hi David, What would you have done if you hadn't been such a successful singer?

Your No 1 fan — Leeds.

Hello No 1 Fan! Well, I think I'd have been a teacher.

The subject wouldn't matter too much — from scuba diving to history — what
