

This week's poem has been sent in by a 'dedicated David fan' who lives in Ruislip, Middlesex and (of course!!) the poem is dedicated to the one and only D.C.

TO DAVID

You're like no other idol, You're in a class of your own.
Now in England we know
you better,
Your popularity has really grown.

Your looks are quite amazing,
Your hair is clear and
fine,
Your eyes so dark and
dreamy,
Oh David, I wish you
were mine!

I'll visit your concert at Wembley,
Your Manchester one's
too far,
Oh Darling David do you realise
Just how wonderful you are?

I expect you get hundreds of letters
From girls who feel just like me,
I don't suppose you have
much time,
But if you read this, how proud I'd be!!
