

Hit The Scene

Not long now till the 25th! We're all getting excited here and people keep rushing out to buy pressies and cards. We can't believe how many cards we've had from all our favourite people - Andy & David even rang us to say that they are really looking forward to Christmas and they sent their love to all of you. Apparently Heathcliff gets a great big bone decorated with a red ribbon on Christmas morning!

Looks as if another bag of mail has arrived so I'd better go.

See you next week.

Much love,

Tony
