

WHAT THE STARS HAVE IN STORE FOR DAVID

DAVID'S PERSONALITY:

David Cassidy was born on April 12th, 1950, in the city of New York, U.S.A., under the sign of Aries. However, if you look at House 1, you'll see that the sign on the rim of the Wheel is Scorpio, so David has in fact an Aries-Scorpio personality, which is quite a combination! The Scorpio side of David is mysterious, sensitive and very emotional, though he keeps his emotions well hidden.

Neptune shows that David is a bit of a worrier, affected by the emotional atmosphere around him.

His Aries traits show that David is an imaginative, artistic person who appreciates beautiful things and who's popular with his friends but, at the same time, he is critical of other people and is someone who lets very few people get really close to him—that's his secretive Scorpio streak again!

The influence of the Moon on Uranus shows that he likes to meet people who are unconventional and even eccentric! He is always seeking change, and, like a true Arian, gets easily bored with the same people and places all the time.

DAVID'S LOVE LIFE:

Since Scorpio is the sign ruling David's first house he will have many of the emotional qualities of the typical Scorpio. He doesn't like easy victories with girls and will be much more interested in a girl who gives him a merry chase!

He likes girls who are somewhat mysterious and aloof and out of the ordinary, and though he can be rather abrupt when he wants to end a relationship, he is willing to make a lot of effort to see that his girlfriend feels she is important to him.

David is not outwardly emotional, but he does like girls who are romantic. Little loving gestures please him very much. He may not be so openly demonstrative but this doesn't mean, however, that David isn't romantic. He is! Scorpio boys love very deeply, but they keep their feelings hidden. David's Moon is ruled by Pisces, which tells us that he is very loving, generous and sentimental underneath his seemingly cool exterior.

I would guess that although he likes to flit around with different girls, he secretly dreams of a cosy homelife with a girl who will pamper him and fuss over him.

But just when David begins to think of a girl in those cosy homey terms, up pops his Arian desire for freedom and says, "Hey, you're an Arian, remember? And Arians don't like to be mothered!" However, his more sentimental side will win in the end when he finds the right girl.

David's Scorpio-Aries personality makes him enjoy being admired by lots of girls and I'm sure he really enjoys the idea that so many of us are head over heels in love with him!

Mars is the planet which rules both Scorpio and Aries. Mars is linked with the physical side of love so we can say without a doubt that David is sexy! Mars people can be impatient, reckless and too domineering but no planets in David's chart have a bad influence on Mars, so David has only the good qualities of Mars.

He does have a temper, but he tends to keep this well-hidden.

He will also want a girl who will stand up to his domineering ways but will still let him be the boss. The wise girl who wants to capture David's heart will have to give him all the warmth and love the "Moon" side of his personality needs, without offending his masculinity.

But now to get down to the really important facts! The position of the Moon ruled by Pisces shows that David will definitely get married, but not for a good few years yet, so relax!

He'll play the field a bit first, with lots of girlfriends, but after a while, he will meet a very special girl—the one destined to become his wife. She will be calm, even-tempered, fair and generous, faithful and eager to help, and she will have something of the mystery and originality about her which attracts David very much.

She will have a very restful, peaceful influence on him, without making him feel that he's being tied down.

DAVID'S CAREER:

There are many clues in David's birth chart which would have told an astrologer looking at his horoscope wheel at birth that the chances of success as a singer were very great for David. The position of the Moon—very close to Jupiter, is a sign of someone who wants to be famous, and Neptune rising over the horizon at birth, as we see in David's horoscope, is also a sign of a person whose dreams will be based on the desire to put himself before the public in some field of the arts. Mercury, the planet of communication, strongly influences Venus, the planet of artists, entertainers, etc.

The sun in Aries gives David the energy and drive to succeed. The influence of Mercury on Saturn tells us that David would be willing to work steadily and with great determination.

But not everything is roses in David's career! Throughout his career he will be struggling against the annoyance caused by business associates and the fierce competition of show business, and he might lose money through false friends.

A person ruled by Neptune, as David is, often tries to escape his troubles by daydreaming, but David has overcome this weakness, however, by the practical, down-to-earth qualities of a strong Mars and Jupiter.

Unlike other stars, who may change their careers, David will remain a singer for most of his life, changing his style as he grows older.
