

BRAVO
Star
Mailbox

WRITE TO DAVID CASSIDY PERSONALLY

This is the opportunity that thousands of you have been waiting for. For the second time, BRAVO is offering you the chance to get up close and personal with one of your favorite stars. This time you can tell David Cassidy everything you've wanted to say to him for a long time. Tell David what you like about him, how you feel about him, what you think of his TV series "Partridge Family" or his records - in short, anything that's close to your heart. If you can speak English, you should of course try to write to him in that language, because David only speaks a few words of German. -

Your letters in German will be translated for David by BRAVO correspondent Frances Schoenberger in Hollywood

DAVI ASSIDY

The most important things about your pen pal David

David Cassidy was born in New York on April 12, 1950. His parents are the actors Evelyn Ward and Jack Cassidy. David is 1.73 meters tall, weighs 63 kilos and has brown hair and brown eyes. His hobbies are diving, photography, basketball and skiing. David is a dog lover, his Irish Setter is named Bulls-Eye

This is what you have to do to receive a greeting from David

Turn this page. On page 4 you will find a prepared letterhead. You can write your letter to David on it. To give David an idea of who you are, please stick a photo of yourself in the box provided. Then send the letterhead to the BRAVO-Star mailbox, 8 Munchen 43, Postlach 604. BRAVO will forward all letters together by air freight to David. And please don't forget to enclose a 40 Pfennig stamp or an international reply coupon for the return postage! One last thing: David is currently on a world tour. So be patient, the answer may take a while. But it will definitely come - David promised us that before he left for Australia