

The New David

These Cassidy photos from Australia will spark heated debate among fans and divide them into 2 camps

BRAVO was there exclusively when David Cassidy had his hair cut short in the fall of 1974. BRAVO was there when he showed his new hairstyle to his fans for the first time: in Australia. At Melbourne airport, hundreds of teenagers burst into tears because they hardly recognized “their” David. - What do you think? Is his new hairstyle really “that bad”, or does it suit him even better than his long mane? Will many of those who took part in the first BRAVO discussion now change their minds?
