

That was the most shocking sentence David Cassidy said in the candid BRAVO interview. During his visit to Germany, he first came to our editorial office: "I have my most loyal fans in Germany. And that's why they should be the first to know that there is a completely new Cassidy. A David who no longer has anything in common with the sweet boy from the Partridge family, and who wants to go completely new ways musically."- You can read about the other scoops David has released here
