

TUBE TALK

TV scene update!

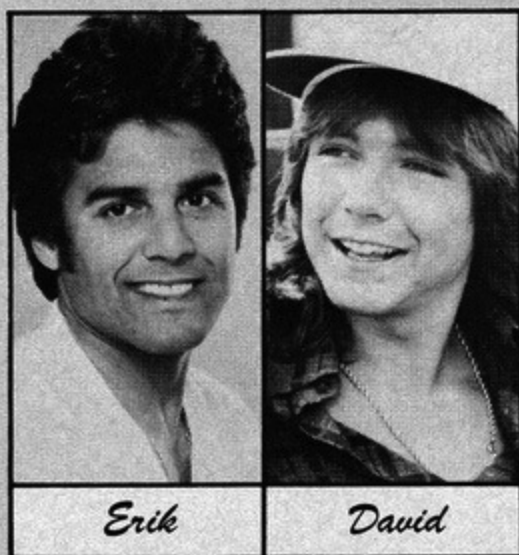

If JOHN TRAVOLTA ever comes to your house for breakfast, don't forget to serve him ice cream. After a hearty morning meal of bacon and eggs or pancakes or whatever, JOHN likes to top it off with vanilla ice cream! ... Even though DAVID CASSIDY's new television show was cancelled, DAVID is busier than ever. He just bought the rights to the story of the kidnapped Getty heir who made headlines a few years ago. DAVID is going to produce and star in the film. ... Watch out for a new poster of ERIK ESTRADA that's scheduled to hit the stores very soon. Insiders predict it will sell like crazy. ... GABE KAPLAN and MARCIA STRASSMAN have settled their long-running feud and are said to be the best of friends now. ... Bridegroom ANSON WILLIAMS and his bride, LORRIE MAHAFFEY, managed a quick one-week honeymoon. They drove along the coast up north to San Francisco. ... Is it true that a major network (and not the one on which "Hardy Boys" appeared) is making plans to star SHAUN CASSIDY in a weekly variety show? ... LINDSAY WAGNER may not be a bionic woman in real life, but she sure is one very special lady. She recently spent five hours talking a young girl out of jumping off a high building after the Los Angeles Police Department requested her assistance. It seems the girl was a fan of LINDSAY's, and, thankfully, LINDSAY was able to talk her into coming inside to safety. ... MARIE OSMOND hopes that her fans will now think of her as grown up since she appeared as a married woman in "Gift of Love" at Christmas and had her first screen kiss. ... HENRY WINKLER brought a lot of happiness to a little boy dying of a brain tumor. His idol was "The Fonz," and HENRY arranged for the boy and his family to be his guests on the "Happy Days" set. ... SUSAN DEY and her husband recently welcomed a little daughter into their lives. That may be one of the reasons SUSAN didn't continue her role in "Little Women" when it went into a series. ... Did you know that RON LEIBMAN, the star of "Kaz," is married to LINDA LAVIN, the star of "Alice," in real life? ... ALAN ALDA should get some kind of award from the airlines. While filming "M*A*S*H" for five months every year, he commutes home to

John

Lindsay

Erik

David

Marcia

Gabe

Henry

Susan

Leonia, New Jersey (where his wife and three daughters live), every other weekend. ... HERVE VILLECHAIZE is going to be judging a beauty contest where the contestants are going to be close to his own size. Of course, that's because all the contestants will be between the ages of three and six! ... It must be nail-biting time for the producers of "Charlie's Angels." Both KATE JACKSON and JACLYN SMITH have given interviews about wanting to start families before too long. And CHERYL LADD, who already has a beautiful little girl, has said she would like to have another baby soon, too. ... More "Tube Talk" next month!

Cheryl

Herve