A FASHION AFFAIR!

2*3

Just like the stars we write about, fashions have changed through the years. TIGER beat began featuring a fashion section in November of 1972 with the stars modeling the latest trends. Some of those stars have come and gone in the eight years since then, but others have grown right along with us on long-running TV series like "The Waltons" and "Little House on the Prairie," and they are still modeling fashions for us! Come and take a look back through the years with Marie Osmond, Linda Blair, "The Brady Bunch" girls and more. It's not only a fashion affair—but a star-studded one as well!
