

next thing I knew I was staying on my friend's couch and I was a million dollars in debt. I hit bottom in every respect."

His personal life also was a mess. In 1977, he married actress Kay Lenz, but they were divorced a few years later. His second marriage to horse breeder Mary Tanz was also short-lived. Now Cassidy feels he's finally on the comeback trail.

He's appeared in several Broadway plays, and also starred in a $75 million high-tech stage show in Las Vegas called EFX.

Happy to be a star again, David has moved to Nevada with his third wife, songwriter Sue Shifrin, and their son, Beau, 8.

He's also launching a new show Jan. 18 in Las Vegas at the Rio Suites Hotel.
