

Television Star Chosen to Lead Teenager Drive

"Teenagers are the parents of tomorrow and it is only logical for us to care deeply about preventing birth defects," says television and recording teen star David Cassidy, upon his appointment as teen chairman for the Los Angeles County March of Dimes.

"It's the lives and good health of our future children that are at stake," he added.

The youthful co-star of the ABC network television series, "The Partridge Family," will head the Teen Action Program for the January March of Dimes drive against birth defects. The announcement was made by Atty. General-elect Evelle J. Younger, county campaign chairman.

To heighten interest in their campaign, TAPS will sponsor a "Go MOD Day," Saturday, Jan. 9, throughout the county. The event will feature various fundraising activities.
