

10-11 ABC) — John McMartin stars on Marcus Welby M.D. in a nightmarish situation for any husband and father. He has become a widower, only to realize that tragedy has spawned another equally as bad or worse. After his wife's death, his son begins blaming his father for his mother's fate. The mental depths to which the young man drives himself, includes "punishing" his father by a suicide attempt. David Cassidy is featured.