

Starts TV Season — Ever since Ricky Nelson made his singing debut, television producers have tried to devise ways to capitalize on other singing and acting families. The latest in this line is a program called "The Partridge Family" which stars David Cassidy, left, and David's stepmother, Shirley Jones. Emphasis of the show is placed on music and comedy. "The Partridge Family" can be seen on the ABC Television Network at 8:30 p. m. Fridays.