

Word is that ABC is seriously thinking of changing The Partridge Family to a new time slot in the schedule. It would be a smart move. The series has a good chance of a) being a success and b) making a big star of David Cassidy. But it's scheduled for Friday nights and it's opposite Andy Griffith's new series, Headmaster. Andy is a proven success, so his competition could be tough.