

Belkins Fill June-July With Three Superstars

DAVID CASSIDY

Even before the first episode of the "Partridge Family" had been aired, David Cassidy's future had already been decided by his fans. After having seen him on episodes of "Marcus Welby," "Ironside" and "Bonanza," his young admirers deluged the stations and networks with adoring fan mail which amounted to a garage full within a few weeks.

The story is a familiar one now for David Cassidy, and the scene will undoubtedly be repeated on June 26, when WIXY Radio and Belkin Productions bring David Cassidy to Cleveland for a long-awaited first appearance. This 8 p.m. show will be presented in Cleveland Public Auditorium.

Cassidy's first single, "I Think I Love You," has sold 3.5 million copies. His second single, "Doesn't Somebody Want to Be Wanted" topped the million sales mark four weeks after its release.
