

David Cassidy show due in Canton May 16

CANTON — David Cassidy, the handsome young singing star of television's "The Partridge Family," will bring his concert company to Memorial Auditorium here for one performance Sunday, May 16, at 7 p.m.

Canton is the first town in this area to see Cassidy in person. In the role of Keith Partridge, David is lead singer and plays the guitar in the family's musical combo. His act will occupy the entire second half of the performance. His company of 15 will include two new West Coast acts, Kim and Dave (a guy and a gal) vocal instrumentalists; a new recording artist Hunnicut, and David's own orchestra directed by Richard Delvy of TV fame.

Cassidy's television career includes roles in "Ironside," "Marcus Welby," "Medical Center," "Mod Squad" and "Bonanza." His first single recording, "I Think I Love You," sold nearly four million copies.

Tickets are on sale at The Geo. C. Wille Co. here and will be available at the door.

DAVID CASSIDY