

Not true that DAVID CASSIDY of ABC-TV's "The Partridge Family" has gotten such a swelled head over his success that he now insists everyone on the set, including SHIRLEY JONES, address him as "Mr. Cassidy." The story was fabricated by a Hollywood columnist who was getting back at David for not granting her an interview.