

Las Vegas — On Danny Kaye's recent Unicef tour he was often questioned about President Nixon's planned trip to China. "I have an agreement with the State Dept." Kay would say, "I promised I'd stay out of politics and they promised they'd stay out of show business." . . . Allan and Jack Jones, Ray and Joey Heather ton, Kirk and Michael Douglas dining at N.Y.'s Camelot. . . . Jack Haley Jr. with Schuyler Aubrey enjoying Stan Kramer's "Bless the Beasts." . . . Jimmy Roselli an Americana Royal Box hit. . . . Bernadette Peters Gives performance of her career in "On the Town." . . . Lou Rosensteil and Nat Ohrbach are Rusk Institute Hospital patients.

---

Only way to get your car through N.Y. midtown traffic is to have it towed away advises Lou Brecker. . . . Brightest young star and teenagers' newest heart throb is 21 year old David (Patridge Family) Cassidy, son of Jack Cassidy and actress Evelyn Ward and stepson of Shirley Jones. Vegas hotels are bidding to land him. His recording of "I Think I Love You" sold five million platters! . . . Caterina Valente limping. She hurt her ankle in a Ping-Pong match. . . . Melba Moore, after sensational Caesars Palace run, flew to N.Y. for Sunday Philharmonic Hall concert. . . . Herman Bagelman, dad of Claire and Merna Barry, died.

---