

IDOL OF YOUNGER SET — David Cassidy has become one of the top musical comedy attractions as the result of playing Keith, the oldest son in ABC's "The Partridge Family." The singer-actor has become the nation's newest heartthrob — especially of the younger teen-agers. His step-mother, Shirley Jones, who plays the mother in the series, is married to his father, Jack Cassidy. David, who has been singing since he was three, also plays the electric guitar and drums. He hopes to have his own recording studio and eventually go into film production. The program can be seen Fridays at 8:30 p.m. on Channel 12.
