

David Cassidy Is Booked at Coliseum Apr. 6

David Cassidy

David Cassidy, singer and star of the TV "Partridge Family" who missed a performance here last fall because of illness, will be at the Dane County Coliseum for one performance Thursday, April 6 at 8 p.m. Cassidy's first single for Bell Records, "I Think I Love You," sold 3.5 million copies. He has since had several albums which topped the million mark.

Mail orders are now being accepted at the Coliseum ticket office for his performance here. Prices are $5.50; $4.50 and $3.50. Checks payable to the David Cassidy Show should be sent with a 25 cent handling charge to the Coliseum Ticket Center.