

THE CASSIDY CROP!

New-look David is still a riot

IT'S a new crop-haired look for pop idol David Cassidy. But his fans love him just the same.

Thousands of teenagers mobbed him and British star Gary Glitter when they flew into Melbourne, Australia, to receive pop awards.

David, pictured above as he used to look, injured a foot in the riot when fans broke through a police cordon.

Which proves, perhaps, that a star who comes a cropper just has to keep on the hop.
